

South Berkeley before WWII
was a Thriving Japanese-American community. The Japanese were evacuated & sent to Relocation Camps in Utah.
There are still remnants of the community.
My wife's family has been in Berkeley since early 1900's. Seen lots of discrimination, and survived.